

Yggdrasil Urban Wildlife Rescue (YUWR) presents Solving Common Human/Wildlife Problems

Brought to you by: The Alameda Animal Shelter
Sponsored by: Friends of the Alameda Animal Shelter

Do you have questions or worries about backyard wildlife like raccoons, opossums and skunks? Want to know how to keep them from causing problems around your property? We will tell you how to solve problems with wildlife around the house and yard. We can help you make it happen without harming or killing animals!

We will tell you how to:

- ◆ make your home and yard less inviting to wildlife,
- ◆ safely and humanely evict wildlife from buildings,
- ◆ and answer your questions and concerns!

Where: Alameda Free Library, 1550 Oak Street, Alameda, CA.

When: Two Opportunities to Join Us!

Thursday, January 27, 2011 or Thursday, February 17, 2011

6:30 PM-7:30 PM

Cost: FREE

Yggdrasil Urban Wildlife Rescue (YUWR) is the wildlife rescue center serving Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Piedmont, Albany and surrounding cities. We are an all-volunteer organization, funded entirely by donations.
